

I am a strong proponent of interoperability of VRS to enable the deaf and the hard of hearing to communicate with their hearing counterparts. Although there are VRS providers that give free products, users should be allowed to have full accessibility to any VRS to guarantee functional equivalence to its fullest capacity.